

Prior to passing of Indiana's Telephone privacy law we received several calls a day (average of 4 daily) including Sunday's and holidays. Since registering with the no call list, we receive zero. This relief from unwanted interruptions into our private lives and evenings is very much appreciated. Please don't do anything to remove this protection from the residents of Indiana. We don't need these intrusions into our privacy. Thank you.